COOPERATIVES EUROPE

On 10th July the first meeting of the permanent working group on cooperatives set up by EU Commission Vice President Antonio Tajani took place in Brussels.

This meeting was an opportunity to address cross-sectoral issues concerning cooperative enterprises in Europe. Representatives of European cooperative organisations taking part in the meeting put forward the priorities for the development of cooperatives in Europe: the need for specific support services, access to finance and funding, the need to include the cooperative enterprise model into school curricula and, last but not least, the need to ensure legal frameworks around Europe which do not discriminate cooperatives.

Vice-President Tajani, intervening at the meeting, said: "Cooperatives are crucial for me and I want to work with your organisations, not only today, but also on an action plan and a strategy roadmap for the

Welcome to Cooperatives in International Development

'Cooperatives in Development' is an initiative that aims to foster exchanges and collaboration for an impact-driven cooperative development approach.

The project is led by Cooperatives Europe and builds upon the activities of the Cooperatives Europe Development Platform (CEDP), which is a European network of cooperative organisations active in international cooperation.
